"Participation without Ballots" – the Test Elections by LAMSA e.V.

On 06/06/2021, Saxony-Anhalt will vote for a new state parliament. As with all other elections at federal and state level in Germany, only persons with German citizenship can take part. This excludes more than 75,000 people who are residing in Saxony-Anhalt permanently without holding a German passport.

By conducting test elections on 28/05/2021, LAMSA e.V. sets a sign that persons without German citizenship also want to be politically active and that their voice should be heard. Every person who has been living in Saxony-Anhalt permanently for more than three months and who is excluded from the state elections due to their citizenship can take part. On your ballot, you can vote for the same parties that are listed on the official state election ballots. We will count the votes and publish the final result of the test elections. A high voter turnout will send a strong signal for more political participation for people without German citizenship.

We are looking forward to your participation!

The test elections will take place on site in Dessau-Roßlau, Halle, Magdeburg, Sangerhausen and Stendal. In these cities, you can cast your ballot personally at polling stations between 10 am and 6 pm. Please bring your ID card with you for this purpose. Additionally, you can vote online. You can register at https://www.lamsa.de/partizipation-ohne-wahlzettel-kontakt/ and will receive the login data from us afterwards. It is also possible to vote by mail. Please send an email to andreas.schmidt@lamsa.de for this purpose or call us at 034521389395. We will send you the ballot together with a pre-paid envelope so that you can cast your vote comfortably from your home.
